the fl@ubert duck series

for all
Fairwood fans

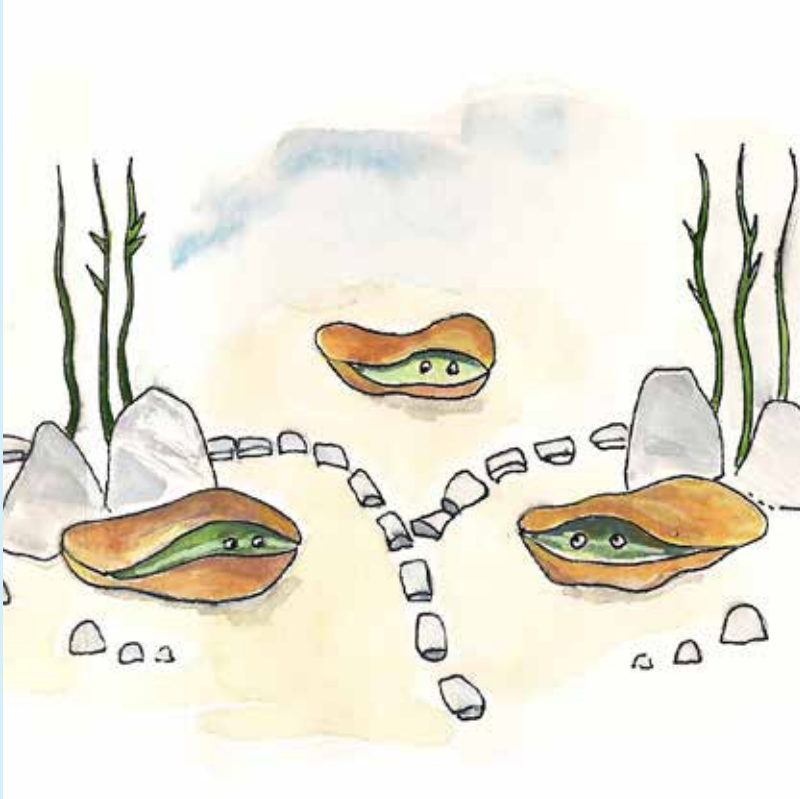

The pen
is smightier than the word

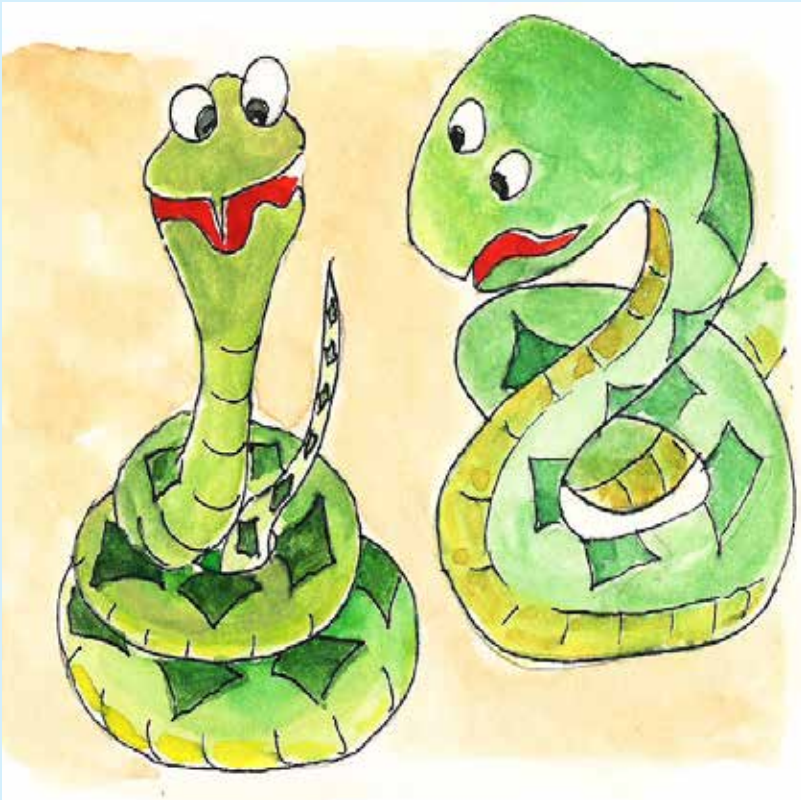

Bee not the first by whom
the new is tried ...

Nor yet the last
to cast the old aside.

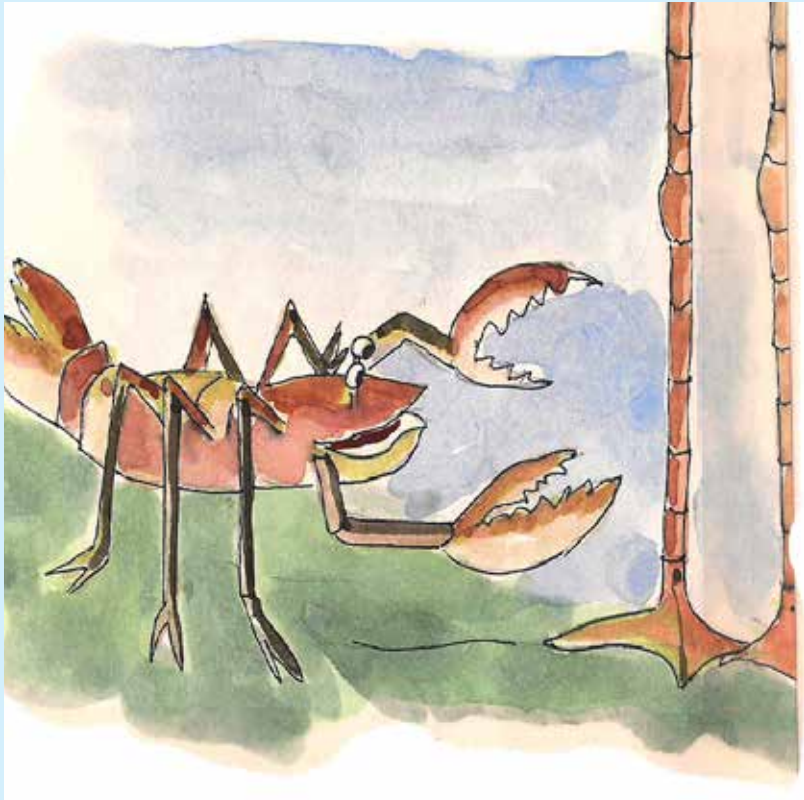

The other clams' grass
seems always greener.

Oh ! How sharper than a serpent's tooth
it is to have a thankless child.

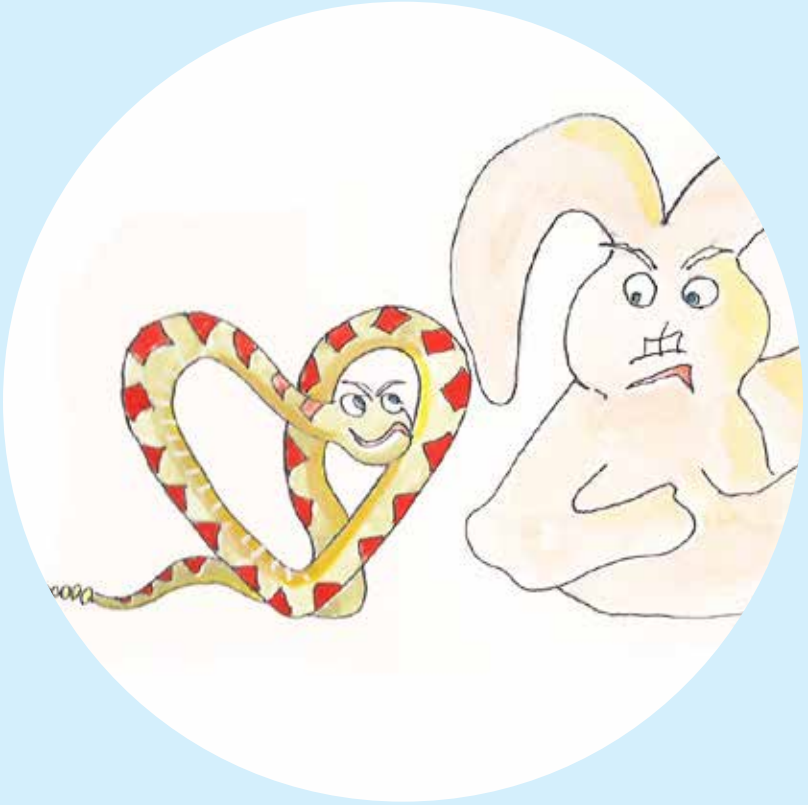

Do not condemn the bear
of bad tidings.

The Devil
finds mischief for idle hands.

One good tern
deserves another.

The course of true love
never did run smooth.

He who pays the piper
calls the tune.

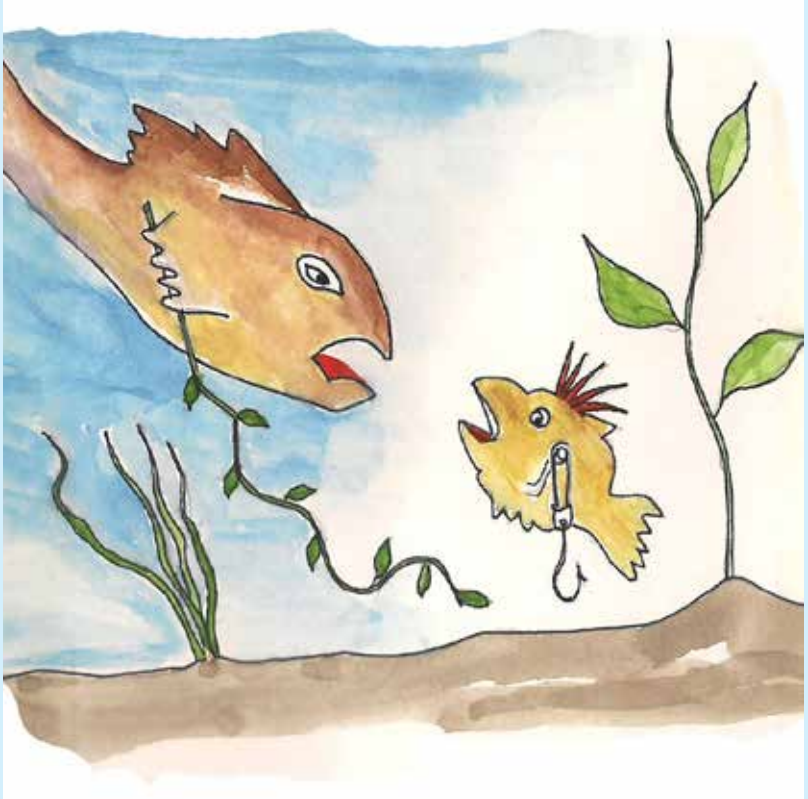

Ask not for whom the bell tolls ...

It tolls for thee!

The bigger they are
the harder they fall.

Spare the whip
and spoil the child.

A bird in hand
is worth two in the bush.

Stone walls do not a prison make nor iron bars a cage.

Wed in haste ...
repent at leisure.

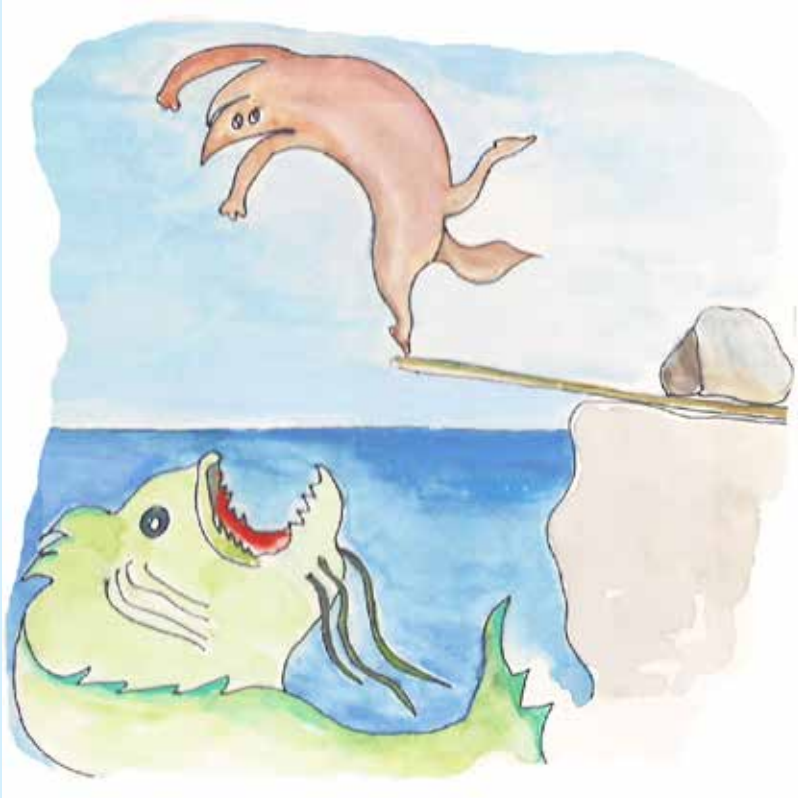

A fool and his wealth
are soon parted.

There's many a slip
'twixt cup and lip.

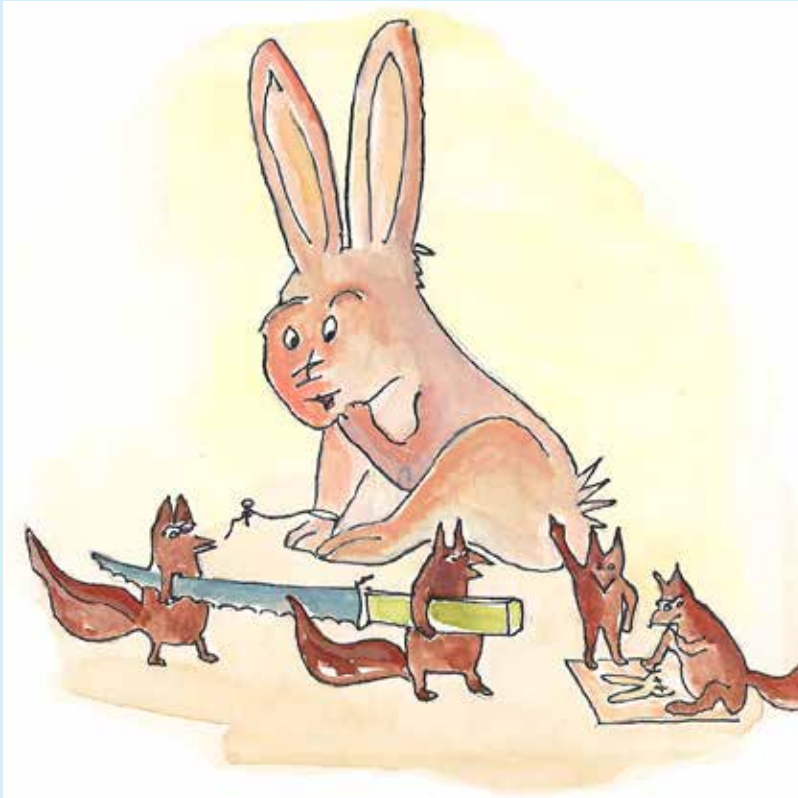

Fools rush in
where wiser fear to tread.

All work and no play
makes Jack a dull boy.

He who hesitates
is lost.

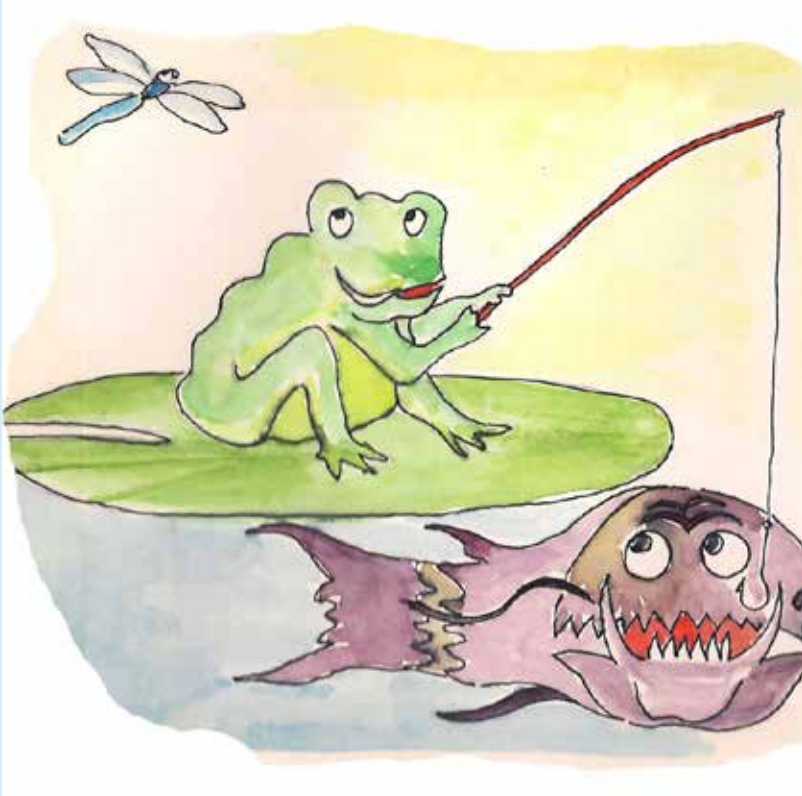

There's more than one way
to skin a rabbit.

Many hands
make light work.

Some can't see the woods
for the trees.

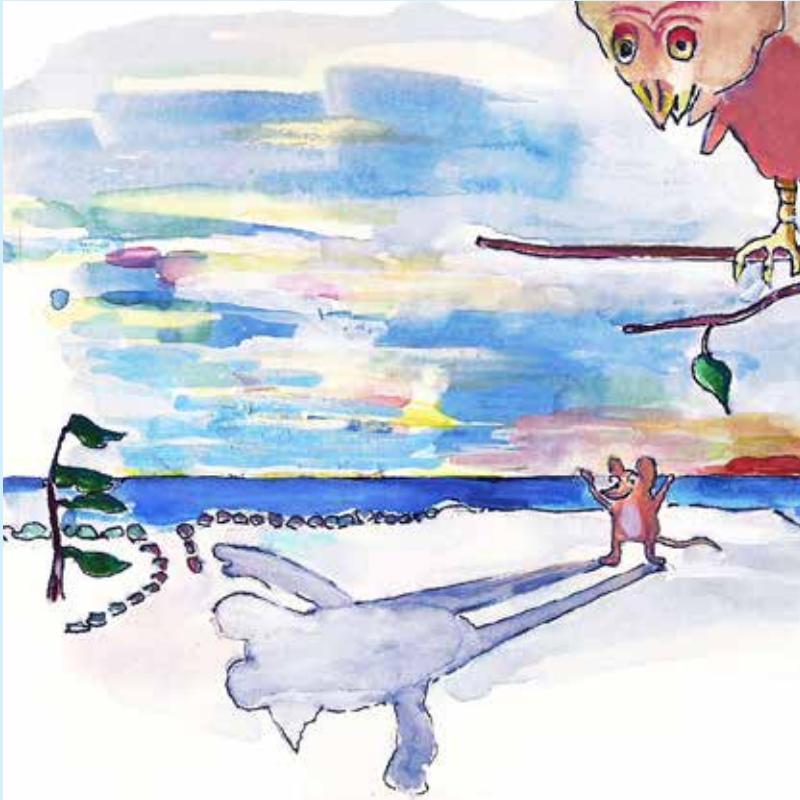

Always keep your mind
on the job at hand.

Tomorrow
is another day.

Good things come
in small packages.

Little people cast long shadows
when the sun is about to set.

Those who forget the past
are doomed to relive it.

Once bitten ...

Twice shy.

A soft answer
turneth away wrath.

Sticks and stones may break your bones
but names will never hurt you.

It's not whether you win or lose ...
it's how you play the game.

Slow but sure
wins the race.

Yours Truly,

Fl@ubert Duck
